CONTINUING EDUCATION

SPRING COURSES 5784

Spring Quarter Courses

The fee for Continuing Education courses is $60 per quarter for NSS Beth El members and $125 per quarter for guests. Payment for one course includes any additional classes during the same quarter at no additional charge. Because the cost of tuition should never be a barrier to participation in our NSS Beth El classes, we do offer financial assistance. Please contact Marcie Eskin at meskin@nssbethel.org for scholarship information.

Storytelling through the Foods of Passover

Thursday, March 28, 11:15 am – 12:15 pm

We're familiar with what special foods to eat at the Seder. Each one contains a story, and they all add to the grand storytelling of the Haggadah. Join us to examine these foods and the messages they convey.

The Ten Plagues: A Deeper Look

Thursday, April 4, 11:15 am – 12:15 pm

We can't tell the story of the Exodus without mentioning the Ten Plagues. But why are these ten selected in this particular order? Come take a closer look at the symbolism of the plagues.

Late-Night Hagaddah Highlights

Thursday, April 18, 11:15 am – 12:15 pm

We all know the songs Echad Mi Yodea (Who Knows One?) and Chad Gadya (One Little Goat). While they are fun to sing, a deeper look reveals important teachings. Let's explore these songs in detail together.

7:30 pm Seudah Shlishit Teaching: "Can Jews ever be truly free from our traumatic past?"

Imprints with Hilda Reingold

Thursday, April 11, 11:00 am

Hilda Reingold immigrated to the United States from Germany in 1937. Her multi-media presentation weaves threads of history and personal narrative into a unique picture of 1930's Germany and 1940's New York. Sponsored by the Gray Cultural & Learning Center and the Beth El Sisterhood, with a complimentary lunch provided by HAZAK courtesy of the Diane and Leonard Sherman Family Foundation.

Register online or contact HAZAK@nssbethel.org.

Chicago Festival of Israeli Cinema: My Daughter, My Love

Sunday, April 14, 5:00 pm

Nominated for four Israeli Academy Awards, this beautifully heartfelt and quietly joyous film tells the story of Shimon, a 70-year-old widower traveling from Israel to Paris to see a childhood friend. NSS Beth El, supported by the Joseph and Mae Gray Cultural & Learning Center, will sponsor the film screening at The Glen. Go to <https://israelifilmchi.org> for more information about the Festival and to purchase tickets.

Yom Hashoah 5784

VERSCHLEPPT: The Carrying Off of Markus and Anna Mattes

Sunday, May 5, 6:00 pm

Told mostly in the written words of Markus and Anna Mattes, grandparents of Beth El member Stephen Nitekman who were murdered by the Nazis, this special multi-media, musical presentation will include slides of the family's letters, photographs, and documents as well as music from the Shoah performed by Debbi Nitekman Kohl on piano and Daniel Katz, of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, on cello. Mincha, Ma'ariv, and our Yom Hashoah memorial service will follow at 7:30 pm.

The exhibit, Witness to the Holocaust: The Mattes Family Letters, shares the story of Markus and Anna Mattes and will be on display in our Rissman Kol Ami Museum through June. It was originally on display at the German American Heritage Center & Museum in Davenport, Iowa. A reception will be held in our museum gallery after the Yom Hashoah service.
