Selected Treasures from the Rissman Kol Ami Collection

Keter (Torah Crown) Hammered silver with Hebrew letters for the twelve tribes 20th Century USA Gift of Benjamin and Gertrude Harris	Parochet (Ark Curtain) Embroidered with silk and metallic threads on a silk ground with metallic fringe 1755 Northeastern Italy, between Ancona and Venice/Gorizia Gift of Maurice and Badona Spertus Restored in 2023 through a generous gift from the Stephen Levin Family in memory of Diane Lynn Levin	Torah Tik Wood, velvet, silver, floral appliqués, medallions and turquoise 19th century Persia Gift of Maurice and Badona Spertus

Silver Seder Tray Three interior tiers for matzah "Pesach, Matzah and Maror" inscribed on top Four glass and silver wine cups for the Seder One glass and silver wine cup for Elijah 19th century Poland Gift of Maurice and Badona Spertus	Hanukkiah (Hanukkah Menorah) For a Synagogue 19th Century Germany Gift of Maurice and Badona Spertus	Rothschild Miscellany Facsimile edition (London, 1989) of original (Italy, 1479) Offset lithography on vegetable parchment, with gold-colored metal-leaf illumination with morocco goatskin and silver binding

Hanukkiah (Hanukkah Menorah) Silver Repoussé on Copper Late 19th Century Europe Gift of Maurice and Badona Spertus	Young Rabbi from N., circa 1910 After Isidor Kaufmann (1853 – 1921), Austria Copy after the original, currently at the Tate Gallery, London Gift of Maurice and Badona Spertus	Gates of the Kol Ami Museum Henri Nehemiah Azaz b.1923, Germany Israeli Wrought iron doors representing an alphabetical acrostic piyyut which is part of the morning recitation of the Shema 1962 Gift of Maurice and Badona Spertus (currently in storage)